Dear Sir:

I am writing this letter to help clarify Chris Lynch's involvement with Girl Scouting. Although he has not technically been a member because he did not pay membership dues, he has been an active volunteer with our organization. I believe he was not advised that paying dues is a requirement of membership. He has registered for this program year. A copy of a receipt documenting this is enclosed.

As I said he has been an active volunteer. I spoke with the leader of Senior Troop # 273 to confirm the work he has done with them. In three years he has provided the focus of their programming - hot air ballooning.

He has taught them the necessary skills so they can serve as his ground crew. They've learned about safety for both pilot and ground crew, appropriate weather conditions for flying, fueling, landowner relations and other matters relative to ballooning. He paid the girls' expenses to attend a seminar in Massachusetts.

He took the troop to balloon festivals and events in St. Jean Sur Richleau (Canada); Burlington, Vt.; and Springfield, Massachusetts besides our own Adirondack Balloon Festival. He has provided financial assistance for these activities.

A highlight was tethering Mary Lou Whitney at her annual August party in 1988. Although our girls were not identified as Girl Scouts, they appeared in a story about Saratoga on Charles Kurelt's TV program, "Sunday Morning". See page 2 of the enclosed newsletter.

He and the troop offered tethered rides at one of the council's annual meetings, demonstrated balloon inflation at day camp this summer, and were scheduled to do a demonstration at a councilwide camporee in June. The weather prohibited that event.

Chris' radio station has offered us PSA time going beyond the usual playing of a canned tape. This fall one of his staff members is scheduled to work with a Junior troop and a graduated Senior to develop PSAs.

He goes far beyond that in his promotion of the cookie sale. When orders are being taken, his disc jockey talks about how good the cookies are, munches them during the program and offers them as a giveaway to callers who respond correctly to his questions. I'm not sure how many years this has been going on, but I would guess a half a dozen or so.

I believe I have offered a comprehensive description of Chris' involvement but not all the details. I can assure you he has offered many, many hours of his own time and support in other ways. Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Lynch:

We want to thank you and your staff for the radio time and the personal time and effort given during the Cerebral Palsy Telethon in January.

If concern and enthusiasm were rated in dollars, your staff would have made us rich. As it was, the Telethon produced a rather dismal result. It becomes more and more apparent that in spite of efforts of local affiliates, that Albany runs the Channel 10 programming for their benefit only.

We are so proud of our new Center and as we watch services grow, we realize that our emphasis must be on local fund raising and local education. Since September 1, we have provided evaluations followed by direct program services or referral for 45 developmentally disabled children under 5 years of age. This evaluation service has never been available in our area.

We are planning a Skate-a-thon at the Civic Center on April 13, and I'm sure we can rely on your assistance. It needs to be a big success to make up for the Telethon.

Our sincere gratitude to you and your staff members for their help. We value the continued support of WWSC.

Very truly yours,

Dear Chris,

After several days' retrospect, I still feel the same:
it was a fine example of cooperation.

Of course this institution soon moves to a new administration, but everyone seems eager to repeat and refine the project. I want these events for A.C.C. because they move my students from the "ivory tower" into real productions. Academic institutions seldom enjoy such opportunities. We have you and Marilyn to thank for this.

I need to do only tweaking rather than major changes to our facilities and our TV production techniques. The monitor for guests should be direct feed rather than returned from the tail end of the cable. My lighting was effective (one reason why the overall production "looked" good), but this aspect was hardly apparent on that feed.

By the way, I was particularly pleased with the adept manner in which Jacobsen and I hit the cues. We never conversed about it, but it was if we were standing side by side. I listened to him and he listened to me...yet another example of that cooperation throughout the entire production.

Thank you for your kind words to Dr. Blank.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, August 7, 1987

Mr. SOLOMON. Mr. Speaker, civic pride and spirit is a way of life in the 24th District of New York, which I have the privilege of representing, and one of the best examples of that spirit and pride is radio station WWSC.

WWSC has qualified for recognition in the President's Citation Program for private-sector initiatives. None of us who live in the 24th district are surprised at all. WWSC has a long tradition of charitable and civic involvement, not the least of which is its giant garage sale, the proceeds of which provide food for less fortunate families at Thanksgiving and Christmas, as well as scholarships for aspiring journalism students.

One of the themes of the Reagan Presidency has been volunteerism—that willingness of Americans to help their neighbors without expecting anything in return. At WWSC, volunteerism is an art form, and the entire area is better off for it.

I'm sure everyone in this body joins me in saluting Christopher P. Lynch, president and general manager; and Dave Covey, station manager; and the entire staff and management of this fine radio station.

Dear Chris:

Where do I begin; Because of your exhaustive efforts, Celebration 88 was a great success.

How can we thank you for the advertising, the sponsors, the financial support, and etc. I hope this effort is reciprocal, in that your association with West Glens Falls Volunteer Fire Co., keeps you in the #1 position for community support and involvement.

The fire dept and auxilliary both had the most successful year to date, thanks to your efforts. We are both anxiously looking forward to next years celebration, in hopes that again we may join forces, to provide a high class, enjoyable, and successful Celebration 89.

Chris, you are a very special person, your interest in community affairs and for providing good wholesome entertainment for the entire family, is unsurpassed by any other person or organization in this community.

Once again, thank you and your entire staff for all of their help, and assistance with Celebration 88.

Dear Chris,

It is amazing but "Radio gets results" beyond a layman's expectations. We are so grateful for the growing community support we are receiving in response to the consistent, positive coverage on WWSC.

During the Sunday of the Albany Telethon, I mentioned on the air, that anyone in their car or anyone who didn't care to phone in a pledge, could mail a donation to First National Bank. To date, almost $400 has been received that way.

We received $1951.25 from the Jay-Mar Miller promotion that we could have lost to our national association without your help and your contacts with Claude Charlebris.

We appreciate Dave Covey's cooperation and sharing of his professional expertise with us. Nancy Gordon has a special empathy for our program and Don Racette has been a delight to work with, as has Bill Miller. And we bless Jackie for her patience and courtesy.

"We're all family." What a caring and supportive family it is! Thanks to all of you for everything.

Dear Mr. Lynch:

Now that Job Discovery '89 has passed, we would like to express our gratitude to all those who contributed to making the event the success it was. It took a surprisingly widespread contribution of time, effort and materials to pull this event together. Your involvement was greatly appreciated.

For all of us that were connected in any way to Job Discovery '89, we should feel gratified by the positive response received by both the employers and job seekers. Everyone involved should be pleased that they helped provide a real service to the local community. In some cases, our combined efforts could have some long term positive effects for individuals who obtain a good job they may otherwise have not received. It was the culmination of hundreds of details with assistance from people such as yourself that made the entire event something special for others to use as a model.

On behalf of the entire Planning Committee, we enthusiastically thank you for your involvement.

Dear Chris:

On behalf of the Board of Directors, I wish to thank you for all the support you give us in advertising the International Festival of the Adirondacks. It is always hard to, "sell" a new concept and without the support of the media, it would be impossible.

We are especially grateful this year, for without your heart-warming help to get the message out, at the last minute, about the changed location, it would have been a total loss. The efforts of at least 1000 people, including 20 schools, 45 ethnic groups and more than 50 volunteers, would have been for nothing and the community would have lost an important event forever.

We are hearing from the children who participated and you may be sure that we are beginning to attain our goal of education and understanding through informal communication with other cultures.

Thank you again for being such an important part of our effort.
